Wedding

Weddings @

Splitters Farm is a 160-acre working cattle property and animal sanctuary that is home to hundreds of rescue animals located just an 8min drive from Bundaberg's central business district.

The property, and pristine bushland surrounds, is bordered by a freshwater creek called Splitters Creek and is home to Australian wildlife such as wallabies, sugar gliders, platypus, and over 150 species of birdlife.

If rustic charm and elegance in a unique country setting are what you're looking for on your wedding day, then you've come to the right place.

Your unforgettable day will be set amongst manicured lawns, native gardens, mahogany trees, corrugated iron, and rustic oak timber wine barrels. Timeless photo opportunities exist with windmills, rusty gates, barn doors, and rolling green paddocks at sunset.

Transfers and accommodation are also available on request to complete your destination wedding.

Congratulations & we look forward to helping you plan your perfect day!
